

Day One | Sunday, 9-29

Today you're on your way to San Jose del Cabo! Before you head to the airport, pause for a moment (take a deep breath) and double check your carry-on bag for: airline itinerary, passport and prescription medications. Remember that once in a while the airlines send your luggage on a vacation without you, so should this happen, perhaps packing an extra outfit to wear until your luggage joins you is not a bad idea.

Note: In keeping with most airlines' recommendations, it is important that you check in at least 3 hours prior to your departure. Please check with your airline for updated departure times. Before long, you are stepping off the plane feeling the sun's warm rays.

Once you have passed through Customs, where you submit your Customs Declaration form (filled out on the plane), you will press the button to proceed. If the light is red, your luggage will be inspected before you continue outside. Once outside, you'll be greeted by Transportation staff at Pavilion/Umbrella #9. Keep your eyes open for the Big M signs! They will be there to assist with your luggage and escort you to the private transportation that will be waiting to whisk you to your Mexican home, Marquis Los Cabos.

Please Note: Transportation is provided on group travel days only. If you are extending, you will be responsible for your own transportation.
